KENNEWICK CHURCH OF CHRIST

He's Never Let Me Down

His longtime friend was succumbing to a terminal illness and only had a short time to live. The Christian gentleman sat by his bedside and tried again to do the same thing he had oft tried before—to talk to his buddy about Jesus. He wanted nothing more than for his friend to leave this life prepared to meet his Savior. But the conversation, as before, didn't go very far.

The Christian man broached the subject again, "I want to talk to you about Jesus." His friend replied, "Why? Does He ever do anything for you?" In quick fashion, the Christian gentleman (who had faced many challenges of his own) replied, "He's never let me down!" Think about that! Could you say that yourself? "He's never let me down!"

Jesus came to this world to live the human life, to face the wiles of the devil and to be "in all points tempted as we are" (Heb. 4:15). He's never let me down!

Jesus, while tempted intensely by the devil (Matt. 4:1-11), stood firm and never yielded to fleshly desires, not even once (1 Pet. 2:22), so that He could be a perfect, sinless sacrifice for me (2 Cor. 5:21). He's never let me down!

Jesus suffered immensely and died a horrific death, bearing my sins (1 Pet. 2:24) and the separation that was due to me (Matt. 27:46). He's never let me down!

Jesus did not stay in the grave (Acts 2:27-31), but "up from the grave He arose with a mighty triumph" (cf. Col. 2:15), conquering death (Heb. 2:14-15) and guaranteeing my own resurrection (1 Cor. 15:20-57). He's never let me down!

Jesus ascended to heaven, "now to appear in the presence of God for" me, "since He always lives to make intercession for" me (Heb. 9:24; 7:25). That's amazing! He's never let me down!

Jesus came to this earth "to be made like" me in "all things," so that when I am "being tempted, He is able to aid" me (Heb. 2:17-18). He's never let me down!

Jesus promised me, "I am with you always" (Matt. 28:20), and that He "will never leave [me] nor forsake [me]" (Heb. 13:5). When others choose to not stand with me, I know that Jesus will always stand with me when I stand with Him (2 Tim. 4:17). He's never let me down!

Why should I, like this older Christian man, want my friends to hear about Jesus? Because...He's never let me down! Why should I, like this older Christian, not be ashamed when others question my devotion to Jesus? Because...He's never let me down! Challenges will come in life, but I can remain steady when I remember...He's never let me down! ~David Sproule

Judy Ward was diagnosed with cancer that is resistant to chemo and she is not well enough to have surgery. The doctors have said she has about 6 months/ Please keep her and her family in your prayers.

Lupe Mendoza is in the hospital. She had her surgery and had a thumb size tumor removed. They also removed all the associated lymph nodes. Right now, she has a feeding tube to avoid leakage from her mouth to her neck. She will be in the hospital for about a week. Please keep her and the family in your prayers.

We are in desperate need of a teacher for our preschool class. See Fran or Holly. Remember the 5th Sunday Singing on this week in Walla Walla at 3:00pm

Humility

Humility should be part of every Christian's character (Col. 3:12-17). A humble spirit will:

Count others better than themselves – "Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself" (Phil. 2:3).

Show respect to others (especially those older) and be accountable to others – "Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (I Pet. 5:5).

Will not be contentious, quarrelsome, or argumentative – "to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men" (Titus 3:2).

"Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion" (Rom. 12:16).

Humility is not a sign of weakness but one of strength, as seen by the examples of Moses and Paul.

"(Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.)" (Num. 12:3)

Paul served humbly, lived a consistent life, and was an example to the Church. "And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you, serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me by the plotting of the Jews" (Acts 20:18-19).

Our greatest example of humility is Jesus Christ. "And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross" (Phil. 2:8). Christ humbled Himself beyond our comprehension and bore our sins on the cross.

Because of His humility, Jesus was highly exalted and at His name every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess Him (Phil. 2:9-11).

When one desires to be a Christian, they must humble themselves, confess Jesus, and be baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38). When Christians remain humble, God gives grace (I Pet. 5:5).~Terry Clark
